Hit Man The Thomas Hearns

Thomas Hearns is an American former professional boxer who competed from 1977 to 2006. Nicknamed the "Motor City Cobra", and more famously "The Hitman", Hearns' tall, slender build and oversized arms and shoulders allowed him to move up over fifty pounds in his career and become the first boxer in history to win world titles in five weight divisions: welterweight, light middleweight, middleweight, super middleweight and light heavyweight. Hearns was named Fighter of the Year by The Ring magazine

Thomas Hearns - Wikipedia

A fantastic insight to the life and career of Thomas "Hit Man" Hearns. It explains his humble beginnings and his iconic meeting with the late, legendary trainer Emanuel Steward. The author goes into great detail of Hearns's big and lesser known opponents. A must read for any boxing fan. Highly recommended.

Hit Man: The Thomas Hearns Story by Brian Hughes

Thomas Hearns is my favourite boxer of all time - his blend of blurring hand speed and vicious power offset by a suspect chin and a pair of pipe-cleaner legs that often threatened to betray him made him one of the most exhilarating fighters to watch in the 80's - winning a then-unprecedented haul of world titles in five separate weight divisions (six if you want to count a couple of lightly regarded belts at cruiserweight)
