The pitfall with THE BLOOD MIRROR, however, is that it's a transitional book. We know there will be one more book and he spends the this entire book setting up the characters in preparation for the final push in the war between the Chromeria and the Color Prince-and of those enemies in the shadows.

Review: The Blood Mirror Brent Weeks - Elitist Book Reviews

-The whole Blood Mirror thing, along with the revelations from Andross to Karris about some kind of monsters or whatever was really cool (and it seemed to work well with that card stuff Kip saw in the last book), but it was just sort of put off to the side and never mentioned again. -The Kip and Tisis sex stuff was a little overblown.
